

Statement of Intent

“AM1 Projects Ltd” (from hereon in will be known as the Company) will make every effort that is reasonably practicable to ensure those affected by our work remain safe and to ensure the prevention of injury and ill health. The company will not jeopardise or compromise the health and safety of its employees or others in pursuit of financial success”.

Aim:

The Company acknowledges that health and safety is fundamental to the success of the business and also acknowledges its legal and morale obligations. The Company aims to comply with the terms of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and all subsequent legislation, including customer and other regulatory bodies. The Company will aim to eliminate all accidents and incidents from within our business and the Company will strive to continuously improve to achieve this aim. The Company will endeavour to achieve its ‘Statement of Intent’ and ‘Aim’ by clearly defining objectives that will give local direction and purpose. The Company will identify, plan and implement a concise, yet robust strategy that will set the route for achieving the objectives. The Objectives and strategy will be reviewed regularly to ensure they remain relevant, appropriate for the business and allow for continual improvement to the overall safety performance.

The company will also commit to provide training and equipment specific to the transport side of the business and will monitor driving standards and records accordingly, in line with the FORS standard.

Commitment:

The Company is committed to total health and safety, so far as reasonably practicable, to achieve total compliance and best practice. This Policy is supported in full by the Board of Directors and a pragmatic management style is employed that encourages a safety and quality driven culture throughout the company. The Board of Directors are also equally committed to the provision of appropriate resources, such as equipment, information, training and supervision, as necessary to implement this policy. While the management of the Company will do all that is within their powers to ensure the health and safety of its employees and workers, it is recognised that health and safety at work is the responsibility of each and every individual associated with the Company. It is the duty of each employee and worker to take reasonable care of their own and other people's welfare and to report any situation which may pose a threat to the wellbeing of any other person. In situations where our workers are under the direct control and supervision of our clients, we will work closely with our clients to co-ordinate and co-operate effectively and safely. All personnel have been made aware of the management commitment to this policy in particular and will continue to communicate health and safety matters professionally and in a timely and effective manner.

This policy will be reviewed annually and will be communicated to all persons working under the control of the Company and will be made available to interested parties upon request.

The Managing Director has personal responsibility for the implementation of Health and Safety within the Workplace and for the display of the Health and safety Law Poster.
